

1. Ackerman Pierce Ltd is committed to eliminating modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, and similar human rights abuses.
2. Ackerman Pierce Ltd is committed to ensuring that its staff and any workers it supplies (directly or indirectly) are not subject to behaviour or threats that may amount to modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, and similar human rights abuses.
3. Ackerman Pierce Ltd provides appropriate training and awareness information for all of its staff.
In particular:
 - All of our staff receive awareness-raising information around issues involving modern slavery and human trafficking, so that they can bring any concerns they have to the attention of management.
4. Any staff, workers or other parties are strongly encouraged to report any concerns or suspicions that they might have to Raymond Jarvis Director at rjarvis@ackermanpierce.com or by phone 0203 761 0230.
5. Reports surrounding these issues are taken extremely seriously by our senior leadership team who are committed to ensuring that all investigations shall be prompt and effective. If our investigations reveal any issues, we are committed to taking appropriate action, including but not limited to:
 - Working with the appropriate organisations to improve standards,
 - Removing that organisation from our preferred supplier list if required,
 - Passing details to appropriate law enforcement bodies.
6. We regularly monitor our risks in this area through the use of relevant key performance indicators, including:
 - Working in line with our Modern slavery Policy and Modern slavery statement.
 - The percentage of our clients who sign up to an appropriate code / provide their own modern slavery statements,
 - The effectiveness of enforcement against suppliers who breach policies,
 - Internal audits, re-audits, spot checks, and related due diligence, and
 - The level of modern slavery training and awareness amongst our staff.
7. As part of our efforts in this area, we publish a modern slavery statement on an annual basis.

8. We would also recommend reading this in conjunction with our other policies, including our:
- Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, Safeguarding Vulnerable Persons Policy.

This policy was adopted on 20.11.2018 after being agreed by Senior Management team. It is reviewed annually.
